Shuman Elected Head Of U.S. Farm Bureau

Is Advocate Of Flexible Price Props

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Farm Bureau Federation, under pressure from Southern delegates, Thursday refused to favor use of private power to supplement TVA power.

The federation did adopt a resolution urging that the Tennessee Valley Authority's power operations be limited to its present area.

But T. J. Hinch of Columbia, Tenn., solidly backed by other Southern delegates, led a successful fight to delete a final sentence in the resolution.

The sentence read: "We favor the development of private production of power to supplement TVA's power supply" where arrangements can be made for the purchase by TVA of such power on a satisfactory and economic basis.

The Eisenhower administration's controversial Dixon-Yates contract was not mentioned, but many delegates felt the sentence supported it.

Charles B. Shuman of Sullivan, Ill., was unanimously elected president of the federation. He succeeds Allan B. Kline, who unexpectedly announced his resignation Tuesday on grounds of ill health.

Shuman, like Kline, is a strong advocate of the administration's flexible price support policy.

Again, most of the Southern bloc of delegates are in opposition here, favoring the previous administration's rigid 90 per cent of parity support policy.

But they are overbalanced by Midwestern delegates, who form the nucleus of the federation's strength.

Hinch's resolution to delete the last sentence of the TVA resolution was backed by the president of state farm bureaus in Kentucky, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

Walter Randolph of Montgomery, Ala., a vice president of the national organization and Alabama state president, said of the sentence: "We don't need it and it would cause considerable misunderstanding in our part of the country."

George Wilson of Berkeley, Calif., president of his state bureau and chairman of the committee that recommended the resolution, said he didn't want to argue the point. "What it really comes down to is whether TVA should have exclusive authority (to build steam plants to supplement its hydro-electric power) or whether, if it could buy more cheaply from a private company, it should do so," Wilson said.

Paris Pact Passes First Reading In German Bundestag

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany's lower house of Parliament Thursday night approved the first reading of the Paris treaties to arm 500,000 German soldiers in Western Europe's defense.

There was no recorded vote as the Bundestag (lower house) agreed to send the treaties to committees for further study. Earlier the house had rejected, 236-153 with 3 abstentions, a Socialist motion to postpone further treaty action until Big-Power talks are held with Russia on unification of Germany.

Many anti-rearmament Socialists, who put their hopes of eventually blocking the treaties on the second and third readings in January, voted with the government.

After the Bundestag takes final action on the treaties they must be approved by the Bundestag (upper house).

RECOMMENDS CARE FOR PERSON WHO FAINTS

CHICAGO (AP)—A New York physician said Thursday the best way to care for a fainted person is to leave the victim lying flat.

Dr. Alfred Soffer said the faint actually is a cure in itself.

Writing in Today's Health magazine, published by the American Medical Assn., he said fainting occurs when deep-lying blood vessels, particularly in the legs and abdomen, are temporarily widened by paralysis or active dilation.

A faint and fall to the ground is nature's way of getting stagnant blood moving back to the heart and brain, he added.

"Forcing the fainting person to sit up will only prolong the unconscious state and may initiate irreversible damage," he said.

Why Not Make Every Day Safe Driving Day?

CHICAGO (AP)—"Let's make every day a Safe Driving Day."

That suggestion was made Thursday by the group which put the big safety show—Safe Driving Day—on the road Wednesday.

An Associated Press survey, including several delayed reports, showed that 49 traffic deaths occurred Wednesday.

The National Safety Council figures that for each fatality there are 35 cases of injury and 225 accidents. That ratio indicates there were 11,025 accidents and injuries to 1,715 persons on S-D Day.

An AP survey made to provide a yardstick, showed there were 64 traffic deaths on Dec. 1. Last year traffic accidents averaged about 27,000 a day.

The S-D Day toll was far under the average of 97 deaths for the first 10 months of this year. Both the S-D Day and Dec. 1 surveys were made on a "spot" basis, counting only the deaths occurring on those days. The fatality average for the first 10 months of this year included deaths that occurred a day or more after the victim was injured.

President Eisenhower's Action Committee for Traffic Safety, which sponsored S-D Day, hailed it as a success. The committee director, Rear Adm. H. B. Miller (ret.), stated:

"S-D Day did precisely what it was intended to do. It focused nationwide public attention on the need for safer driving and it proved that, with just a little more care and effort, the traffic toll can be cut substantially.

"We wish, of course, that the actual saving in lives on S-D Day could have been greater but, if this saving could have prevailed throughout the entire year of 1954, more than 6,000 lives would have been saved.

"The benefits of S-D Day did not end at midnight. We are sure they will be felt in terms of lives saved and in freedom from tragedy in the months to come.

"Let's make every day a Safe Driving Day."

Deaths by Midwest states in the final tabulation:

Illinois 3, Indiana 5, Iowa 1, North Dakota 1, Ohio 2, Wisconsin 1.

Eisenhower Names Nelson Rockefeller Special Assistant

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday named Nelson A. Rockefeller as a special adviser on how to win allies and friends in this time of cold war and uneasy truce.

The White House made public an exchange of letters between the President and Rockefeller. Included was his appointment as a special assistant to the President and his resignation as under-secretary of health, education and welfare.

Rockefeller takes over the post formerly held by C. D. Jackson, now a member of the U. S. delegation to the United Nations.

Presidential Press Secretary James Hagerty told Newsweek magazine that Rockefeller's tasks were "much broader" than those faced by Jackson. He explained that, while Jackson wrestled with psychological warfare in the cold war, Rockefeller would add to that job consideration of how to coordinate the work of all government agencies for peace.

No full clarification of Rockefeller's duties was immediately forthcoming. However, Eisenhower said in his letter that Rockefeller would attend meetings of the Cabinet, the National Security Council, the Council on Foreign Economic Policy, and the Operations Coordinating Board.

Doctors Diagnose Pope's Ailment As Esophagus Hernia

VATICAN CITY (AP)—X-ray plates show Pope Pius XII is suffering from a hernia of the esophagus—of "small importance"—as well as gastritis, his personal physician said Thursday night.

This means there is an abnormal bulge in the tube which carries food from the throat to the stomach and that the stomach is inflamed.

Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi told of the results of an exhaustive study of 36 plates used in the first X-ray examination of the 78-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church, who collapsed two weeks ago. Fears that he had an ulcer were set at rest. And the idea immediate surgery might be needed was ruled out.

Dr. Galeazzi-Lisi said a further course of treatment and diet to increase the Pope's strength will be studied Friday.

The pontiff remained weak Thursday.

But a consulting doctor said: "There is nothing urgent about the Pope's present condition." An operation is not necessary immediately, although "this must eventually be done if the Pope is to be cured of the hernia," he said.

Higgins Denies Taking Part In Bank Holdup

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—William C. Higgins, identified by two government witnesses as the bandit Thursday denied that he had any part in the holdup of the First National Bank of Sandoval, Ill.

Higgins, 35, a former convict of Trenton, Ill., said he was in Sandoval Oct. 21 and parked his car across from the bank for a short time. He said he returned to the car after attempts to sell advertising to some local merchants, and later went to the tavern where he was arrested.

He admitted to the federal court jury that he owned the gun found in his auto after the arrest.

Higgins and Truman Corcoran, 30, of Grand Rapids, Mich., are accused of the $11,561 holdup. The money was found later in Higgins' car parked in front of the tavern in which he was arrested.

Those who identified Higgins as the bandit were Mrs. Stella Bellamy, a vice president of the bank, and Miss Rena Burgess, a book-keeper-teller.

Higgins was the first defense witness after the government rested its case.

Catholic Press Hears Mindszentzy Freed By Reds

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Catholic press agency Kathpress Thursday distributed a rumor that the Hungarian regime had released Josef Cardinal Mindszentzy. There was no confirmation from any source.

The ailing 62-year old cardinal was sentenced by the Reds in 1949 to life imprisonment on treason and sabotage charges. The Rev. Jacob Fried, chief of Catholic publications here, said the Kathpress report came from a French businessman journeying from Budapest.

Father Fried said the Frenchman was reliable but picked up the reports "from rumors only and not from any official source."

The Kathpress dispatch, dated Budapest, said it was reported Wednesday in "usually well informed circles in the Hungarian capital" that the cardinal had been released a week ago and gone to his diocese. But it added diplomatic quarters in Budapest knew nothing about the release and that the cardinal's palace at his diocese in Esztergom said he was not there.

In Budapest, spokesmen for the Hungarian Foreign Ministry declined to comment. There have been rumors in the Hungarian capital for some time the Communist regime was negotiating with the Roman Catholic Church.

The cardinal and six codefendants were convicted Feb. 8, 1949, after a trial that shocked the free world and brought denunciations from many Western leaders. The prelate, stripped of the church robes of his rank and wearing only the cassock of a priest, appeared under great strain.

Waterfool season, just average.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois waterfowl season which ended Wednesday was just average, the State Conservation Department said Thursday.

Lew Martin, assistant director, said early season shooting of ducks was good but became poor as the mild weather persisted.

He estimated the kill of geese at Horseshoe Lake at 12,000, compared to 40,000 last year.

Although the United States Trust Territory of Pacific Islands is as wide as the United States, the 2,000 islands have a total land area half the size of Rhode Island, says the National Geographic Society.

Doctor Denies Predicting End Of World On Dec. 21 But Believes Cataclysms Will Occur On Earth's Surface

CHICAGO (AP)—A doctor who claims contact with "outer space" Thursday said Dec. 21 as a day of "violent upheavals" on earth.

Dr. Charles Laughhead, a staff physician at Michigan State College, East Lansing until Wednesday, denied, however, he ever predicted the world would end on that day.

Referring to "communications" he said were received by persons tuned in for signs from "outer space," the doctor predicted there will be "certain cataclysmic effects Tuesday" near Lake Michigan and off the Eastern and Western Seaboard.

In Chicago, a similar denial came from Dr. John A. Hagman, Michigan State president. He said he did not know who originated the report that Dr. Laughhead predicted the world's end. Hagman was in Chicago for an educator's conference.

Dr. Hagman said the college was "not interested" in Dr. Laughhead's beliefs.

Dr. Laughhead was reported as submitting his resignation to the school, but he said Thursday he was asked to leave. Dr. Hagman said he had no comment to make on this version of Dr. Laughhead's departure.

As for his beliefs of pending cataclysms, Dr. Laughhead described himself as a "reporter" for individuals who he believes have been receiving communication from outer space telling of such world-shaking disturbances.

"These communications show," he said, "there will be certain cataclysmic effects Tuesday in certain localities. One of them is in the Midwest around Lake Michigan and others are off the Eastern and Western Seaboard."

He said they may cause the legendary continents of Atlantis and Mu, the "birthplace of humanity," to rise from the floor of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

Dr. Laughhead, 44, did not specify further the phenomena he expects Webster gives three definitions of a cataclysm: (1) An extensive overflow or sweeping flood of water; (2) Any violent physical change involving sudden alterations of the earth's surface; and (3) An upheaval, especially a social or

Soviet Renews Attempt To Knife Paris Treaties

Sheppard Trial Nears End, Goes To Jury Today

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Samuel Sheppard placed his life in a jury's hands Thursday with an avowal of innocence—and a calm, unswerving, fearless faith in God.

The case of the 30-year-old osteopath accused of the July 4 murder of his wife, Marilyn, goes Friday to a jury that holds the power to put him in the electric chair.

Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan read into the court record in his closing argument a portion of a letter he said Dr. Sheppard wrote from his jail cell. The date was not specified.

"Finally, I am completely free of any desire for revenge," the passage read. "I find that I have no anger in my heart toward those who pressed for my arrest."

"There is only one judge that any of us should truly fear and I face Him without hesitation or apprehension."

Without mentioning the death penalty in so many words, Asst. Prosecutor John J. Mahon in the final argument of the nine weeks' trial went all out for a first-degree murder verdict. And he told the jury:

"In your hands I rest a life, the life of this defendant."

Mahon repeatedly pointed to Dr. Sheppard as the killer of his wife. He suggested the osteopath dashed out of his house after the slaying "maybe with the thought in mind of ending his life in the waters of Lake Erie."

"But the cold water changed his mind," said the tall, white-haired state's attorney, shouting at a pitch higher than any he has reached before during the long trial.

Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin said his charge to the jury would take less than an hour. Then the panel begins its deliberations.

Stratton Hopes To Balance Budget Without Tax Hike

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Stratton said Thursday he believes the 1955-57 state budget can be balanced without increasing the state sales tax.

While he did not rule out completely the possibility of a tax boost, he said every effort will be made to keep the new budget within existing income.

"It will take some doing but I think it can be done, and that will be our goal," he told a news conference.

Sketching some of his plans for the 1955 Legislature which opens Jan. 5, Stratton said his administration will support only one state constitutional amendment—one to revamp the Illinois court system.

He said he does not believe an amendment to revise tax and revenue laws should be adopted at this session.

The governor said he expects to back bills for a state crime commission, to bolster the Illinois attorney general's investigating powers and possibly one to combine the Illinois Racing Board and the Illinois Harness Racing Commission.

Islands emerging from oceans.

Dr. Laughhead, interviewed at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Martin in suburban Oak Park, declined to say where he would be Tuesday. He said his plans are "personal."

MSC President Hannah said Wednesday: "I first heard about this business when a group of students came to me. They told me Dr. Laughhead had been holding meetings at his home and preaching the beliefs of some peculiar religious sect."

But Dr. Laughhead said no religious sect was involved. He said the student meeting under his auspices at MSC were known as the "Quest Group."

As for his resignation, Dr. Laughhead stated: "I was called into the department head's office and told: 'We'll have to have your resignation, doctor. You know why. It has nothing to do with your professional efficiency.'"

Several persons were in the Martin home during the interview, including a teacher, a man in his 30s and a youth who would only give his name as "Paul."

He said such geological phenomena have occurred many times before in the history of the earth. He cited such examples as volcanic eruptions burying cities, mountains rising from the earth's crust, and

Air Force Is Building Long-Range Aircraft

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force disclosed Thursday it is moving into the field of giant, long-range transports in an effort to speed up military supply lines in any future war.

Air Force Secretary Talbott and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chief of staff, discussed the development at a one-day conference on air logistics supply, arranged by the Air Force Assn.

They and other Air Force officials said the powerful engines for the huge cargo and passenger aircraft of the future probably will be available in about two years, and airplanes equipped with them will be operational within five years.

Talbott told the gathering of military and aviation industry leaders—an audience including 67 company presidents and 26 general managers—that two long-range heavy transports, one with a 25-ton payload capacity and one capable of carrying 50 tons, "are coming along" and show great promise.

The Air Force currently has a plane, the experimental Convair XC99, which has carried loads of 100,000 pounds. The plane, an experimental version of the B36 heavy bomber, is not a true cargo plane, however, and is not designed for an air logistics system.

The two new long-range planes are turboprop aircraft—that is, they have jet engines driving propellers. Neither Talbott nor Twining identified them by name, but they are the Douglas C133 and C132.

The first sharp tremor came in Reno at 3:07 a.m. and two to three minutes later at more distant points.

The University of Utah seismograph at Salt Lake City was so shaken that it gave no readable record for 20 minutes, and then showed a magnitude of 6 on a scale of 10.

The California Institute of Technology at Pasadena, however, said the magnitude was 7 or slightly higher on the Richter scale which has no fixed maximum, but on which 8.6 is the highest ever recorded.

By ratifying the Paris agreements, the note said, France would show a desire not to abide by the 20-year French-Soviet pact of alliance and mutual assistance signed in 1944. Ratification would "fundamentally contradict the obligations assumed by France" under the treaty, it added. The treaty pledged mutual assistance in the event of a rebirth of German aggression.

"Therefore," the note continued, "ratification only serves the purpose of certain states engaged in preparing a new war."

Red China Keeps Silent On Meeting Hammarskjold

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States went back Thursday to its watchful waiting attitude toward seeking the release of Americans held by Red China.

That left it up to the Communists to make the next move. And it returned the U. S. government to the silent back seat it chose after the United Nations General Assembly assumed responsibility last Friday.

After the 47-5 U. N. vote to seek release of 11 U. S. airmen imprisoned by Red China as "spies," American officials let it be known they were keeping hands off. They gave U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold a free hand at least until his Dec. 31 deadline for filing a report.

Hammarskjold promptly cabled Peiping. He asked for a meeting with Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai sometime after Dec. 26, and he offered to go to Peiping if need be. So far, no reply.

Hammarskjold is to be in his native Sweden this weekend, and it was reported Thursday at the U. N. he has asked for a meeting with Red China's ambassador at Stockholm. It was considered likely that he would get a reply from Chou whether he would receive him in Peiping or whether the ambassador would be authorized to talk.

Dr. Laughhead, interviewed at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Martin in suburban Oak Park, declined to say where he would be Tuesday. He said his plans are "personal."

MSC President Hannah said Wednesday: "I first heard about this business when a group of students came to me. They told me Dr. Laughhead had been holding meetings at his home and preaching the beliefs of some peculiar religious sect."

Threatens To Cancel Pact With France

MOSCOW (AP)—In a blunt note to the French, the Kremlin threatened Thursday to cancel the French-Soviet mutual aid pact if Paris ratifies the agreements to arm West Germany. It said France would bear full responsibility in this event.

The French National Assembly begins debate on ratification Monday.

In a simultaneous move under-scoring Soviet global policy, Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov directed a statement to Japan expressing "a positive attitude" toward normalizing relations with Tokyo. The Soviet Union has never signed a peace treaty with Japan, whose new government is under strong pressure to open up avenues of trade to the huge Communist-held market.

The Soviet note to France, announced at a specially called Foreign Office news conference, appeared designed for its impact on next week's French deliberations. The note was a formalization of previous Soviet warnings and a climax to a number of maneuvers against France, considered the keystone country of the projected Western European Union. The intention was indicated by the note's reference to previous French rejection of "proposals of the Soviet Union and its friendly warnings."

By ratifying the Paris agreements, the note said, France would show a desire not to abide by the 20-year French-Soviet pact of alliance and mutual assistance signed in 1944. Ratification would "fundamentally contradict the obligations assumed by France" under the treaty, it added. The treaty pledged mutual assistance in the event of a rebirth of German aggression.

"Therefore," the note continued, "ratification only serves the purpose of certain states engaged in preparing a new war."

LORTON MUST GIVE UP TODAY OR LOSE BOND

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP)—The deadline for a court appearance of an accountant sentenced to prison but last heard of in Canada has been extended one day.

If Spencer D. Lorton, 41, of Springfield, Ill., fails to surrender Friday his $40,000 property bond will be forfeited.

Lorton was convicted and sentenced to three years as well as fined $10,000 for falsifying tax returns of his clients. He had been released on bond pending an appeal. The appeal lost.

U. S. District Court Judge Casper Platt originally ordered Lorton to surrender to him Dec. 6. The deadline later was extended to Dec. 9, again to Dec. 16, and Thursday another day was added.

A BALANCED BUDGET

A balanced federal budget is an objective any purposeful government should be eager to proclaim, and to pursue with energy. But, in this age of peril, even at best, the goal is extremely difficult to achieve.

The Eisenhower administration set this aim for the start, but it has not yet been able to attain it. In the President's first year, the budget showed a $4 billion deficit. In the current fiscal year, prospects are for a deficit close to $4.7 billion.

And now Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey says there is no hope of bringing income and outgo into balance for the year which will begin next July 1. He doubts that the government can do more than hold the deficit somewhere below $3 billion.

This performance, measured against GOP campaign promises of 1952, perhaps will give the Democrats something to taunt their opponents with. Nevertheless, the achievement is considerable when placed beside the last complete budget of the Truman regime, which showed a deficit of $9.5 billion.

Defense and foreign aid spending, as always, form the hard nut that not even the most ambitious budget-balancer can crack. It is a question how much more these outlays could be reduced without gravely impairing the national security.

Indeed, some pretty powerful arguments are advanced for spending bigger sums than we do in this field. Asia is in pressing need of economic help. In the military sphere, Russia is believed well on the way to having enough nuclear weapons and bombers to deliver crushing blows against the United States.

Ironically, some of the Democrats who will be chiding the GOP on its budget-balancing promises are strongly convinced we should now be spending more.

But this is certainly not the vital point—whether the Administration's critics are consistent or not. What would seem to be important is that we do not ever make a balanced budget some sort of magic goal in itself.

We are in a tense struggle for survival. It is the first business of this or any other administration to do all possible to assure our survival. To put a fixed price on the effort we will make—to say we will spend no more than a stated sum—is to try for a sort of bargain-counter freedom.

Of course we do not wish to be bled white in this contest. But neither do we want to be caught in the counting house, squinting at a balance sheet, while free nations fall to communism and Russia stands poised with enough deliverable atomic might to smash liberty in its strongest bastion—the United States.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—A nation that fails to remember in peace the lessons it learns in war runs the risk of sudden oblivion.

This would be a good time for every American soldier and civilian—and every schoolchild, too—to get a tablet and write in it 100 times the following sentence: "I won't be afraid of the other guy, but I'll never underestimate him either."

A decade ago today the entire free world awoke to the value of this lesson with a shocked dismay. This is the tenth anniversary of the foggy morning when Adolf Hitler sprung a German Pearl Harbor on the Allies by suddenly smashing through their lines in the Ardennes.

Looking back now, the frightening thing about the "Battle of the Bulge" is that the Germans achieved almost as complete a tactical surprise as the Japanese had three years before in their war-opening bombing of our bases in Hawaii.

The bitter lesson of Pearl Harbor—"never low-rate your enemy"—had been almost forgotten, certainly by the people at home and probably even by some of the top brass.

Final victory seemed so near in Europe. The Nazis, suffering terrible attrition on every battlefield, now seemed close to the crumbling playing possum.

Some politicians, businessmen, and triple-dome economic crystal gazers were already worrying about a possible postwar depression.

Then Hitler's legions struck, and his waves of Panzers crashed through the thin stretched-out U.S. line as if it were an eggshell. In 48 hours the American public no longer was concerned about postwar problems. It was praying for the men at the front.

The thing is Hitler had been able to do the unexpected. He didn't win the Battle of the Bulge, but he drew a mighty scare into the Allies.

Remember how many people jeered at Hitler's bombastic promises he would unleash secret new weapons? He did come up with a few, the buzz bomb, the V-2 rocket, the jet plane. And he had more planned.

Remember after the war the jokes about the supposedly mechanically ignorant Russians? How they could build great planes—except they forgot to build the engines?

But they produced a fine fighter plane in Korea, and came up with the atom and hydrogen bomb.

It is never a mark of intelligence to laugh at the other fellow's ignorance. He may just be appearing close to the crumbling playing possum.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Double feature today—

The dark, soft-spoken little man on the movie stage was Eduardo Cansino. He, of course, is the father of Rita Hayworth.

Cansino was directing a Spanish dance sequence with Jack Palance in "Kiss of Fire." I found him to be a happy, rather philosophical man whose great interest in life is the dance.

"I have my studio," he explained. "We have 200 students, you know—all ages. We teach them everything—mambo, ballet, jitterbug. But of course my favorite is the Spanish dances."

The conversation naturally got around to Rita. He said he hadn't seen his daughter for some time. "But I may get up to spend the holidays with her at Lake Tahoe," he added. "My school will be closed then and I'll be able to get away."

Cansino said his family is actually close, and he hears from Rita via telephone and letters. But it can't be too close because he confessed he never has met Rita's last two husbands, Nos. 1 and 2, and not Nos. 3 and 4.

"Oh, once she was in town with Aly Khan," he said. "She invited me over one Sunday. But Sunday is my only day of rest from the school, so I said I'd make it another time. The next day they took off for Mexico!"

"Rita wanted me to come up to Las Vegas when she married Dick Haymes. But I wasn't feeling well, so I didn't go. Dick was here alone since then, but he was pretty busy."

That's putting it mildly, he was here for his deportation proceedings.

Although he has met only 50 per cent of Rita's husbands, Ed Judson, Orson Welles, Cansino said, he has seen much of her daughters.

"Both Rebecca and Yasmine were enrolled at my school," he remarked. "And they stayed with us when Rita went east once. They were brokenhearted when they had to drop out of school this last time."

Hollywood is a town for married people, says Margaret Hayes, latest import from TV.

Dark-haired, high-cheeked Margaret is a beauty who had appeared on Studio One, Robert Montgomery Presents and most of the other dramatic shows on TV. This brought her to the attention of Hollywood. She is now appearing in "The Blackboard Jungle" and has offers from three other studios.

"It's great for married couples here. But I don't think single people can be happy."

She is now married to Herbert Bayard Swope Jr. and they have two children.

DRY REASON

SCHULENBURG, Tex. (AP)—Just about everything's blamed on the drought.

They claim they haven't been able to get good reception on eight television channels in this Texas town because there's been no rain to wash off insulators and reduce static electricity in the atmosphere.

LITTLE LIZ

By watching her every move the parents might be able to enforce their "no dating" rule for two more years.

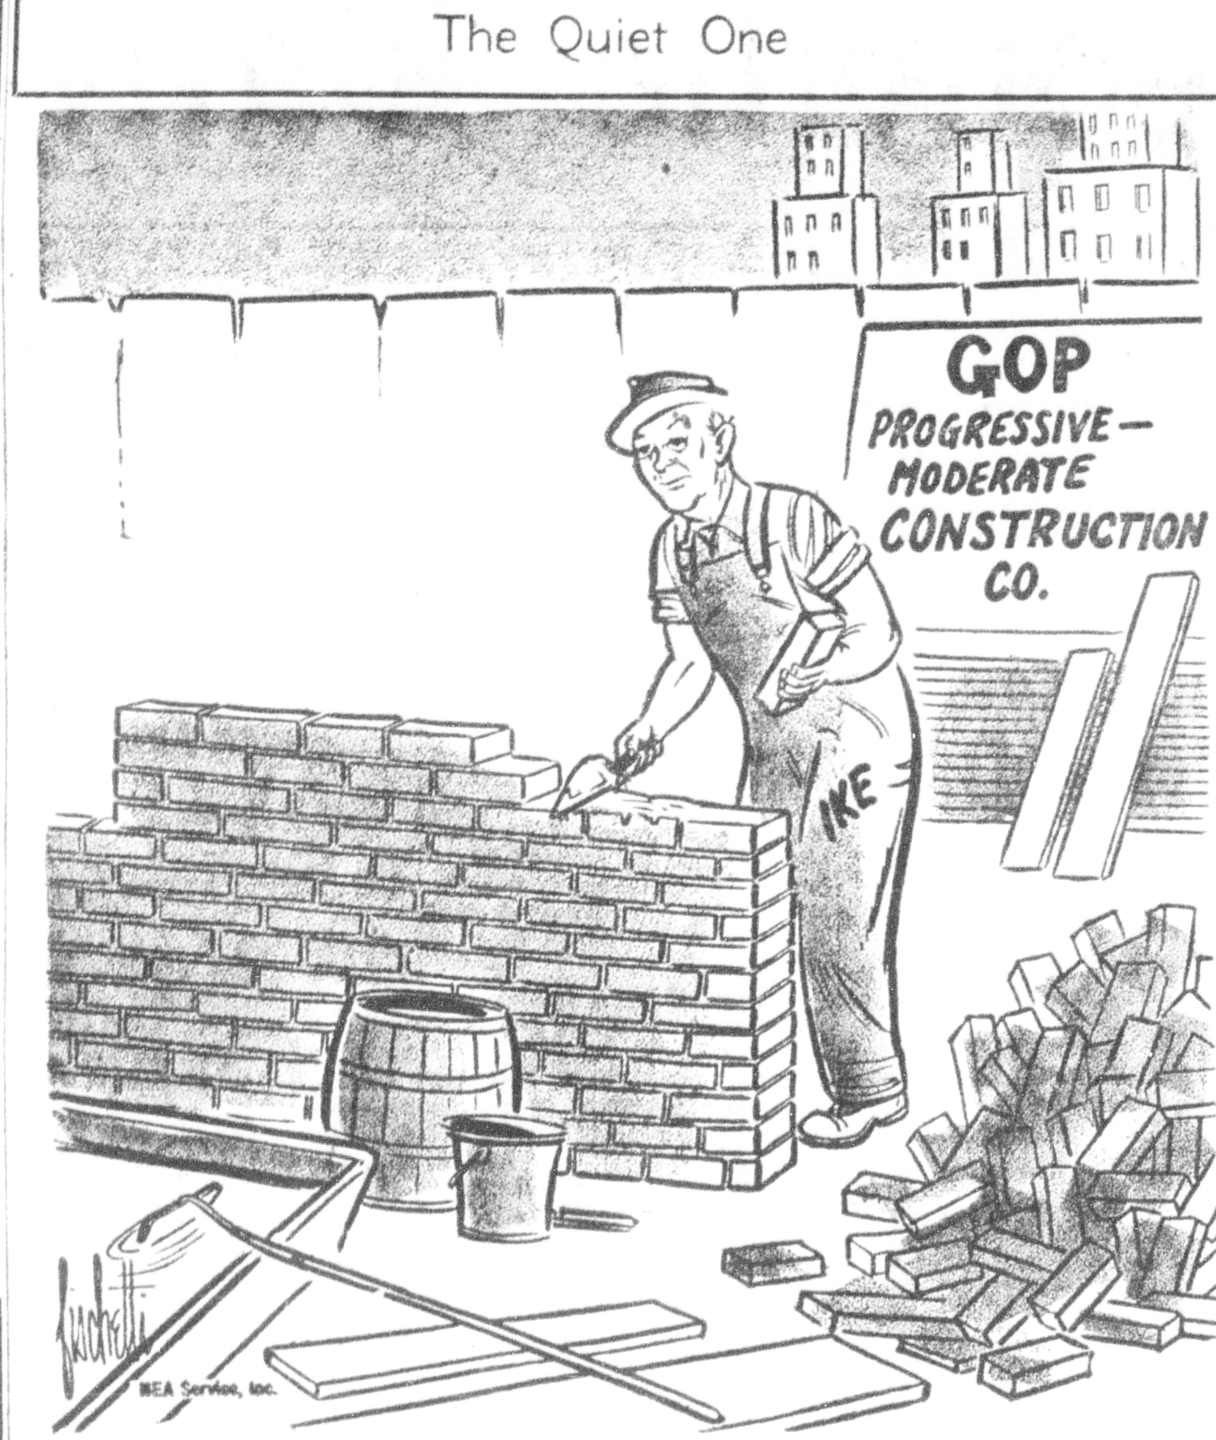

But that wouldn't do anything to build up a feeling of mutual trust and respect between daughter and parents.

And the lack of that is the thing the parents should be worrying about. It is far more important than whether or not the daughter dates at fourteen or sixteen.

COMPROMISE IS THE KEY

So it seems to me that the parents should talk things over with their daughter and be willing to listen to her ideas as to express their own. Then they should be able to reach a compromise, letting the girl date under certain circumstances.

When teen-agers deceive their parents in order to do as they please it is usually because they feel they can't talk things over or that they really don't have their parents' trust.

Early Birds—Dixon Jokes—Yates Estimates—Prolific People—Budget Woes—Good Question

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Applications for tickets to the first football game between Notre Dame and the U. S. Air Force Academy, to be opened next July at the Lowry Air Force base near Colorado Springs, Colo., are already pouring in.

Just when this game will be played, nobody knows, nor where. But the mere prospect of a three-cornered rivalry between West Point, Annapolis and "Lowry," of Colorado Springs, or whatever they call it, has whittled the interest of sports fans. And the three service schools themselves are expected to carry on the traditional rivalry of the two against Notre Dame.

Li-Col Robert V. Whitlow, for three-letter man at West Point, who has been made athletic director of the AF Academy, has no athletic fund and no alumni association. Since government funds can't be used for interschool competition, an athletic association has already been formed to finance a sports program.

The Air Force cadets will choose their own mascot, but Air Force magazine says it's a safe bet that either an eagle or a falcon will be chosen.

EDGAR H. DIXON, of the now famous Dixon-Yates powers company, tells one about a man who, who tells a fat fire in front of an in-high-cost, noneconomic units, same asylum. While he was changing-rather than to outmode and replace wheels, the lugs fell down a the grating over a sewer intake. As the man stood around cursing and wondering what to do, the head of one of the institution's inmates appeared at the grating and asked up with a new report on what are what was wrong?

"Sure I'm crazy," answered the inmate, "but that doesn't mean I'm stupid."

Comments Mr. Dixon after telling this story: "I may qualify as either one for getting mixed up in this government power deal."

EUGENE A. YATES, the other (20 per cent) partner in the Dixon-Yates combine, thinks that atomic energy as a source of electric energy won't work any sudden or sweeping revolution in the power business, but that it will be absorbed gradually in the normal growth of the industry. Wide, commercial use of atomic energy power may be 10, 15 or even 20 years away, he says. As these new atomic energy units are built, they may be used to replace worn-out steam plants.

"We're constantly junking 30 and 35-year-old steam plants," explains Mr. Yates. As head of the Southern Co., owner of Georgia Power, Alabama Power, Birmingham, Gulf Power and Mississippi River Power Companies, Mr. Yates directs the operations of all these plants. His theory is that the new, more economic, atomic energy units will be used to replace the old, high-cost, noneconomic units, and the new modern units during their grating over a sewer intake. It's funny how often you can tell by what you had for lunch downtown what you're going to have for dinner at home.

Some hubbies can't figure which is more dangerous—allowing the wife to drive the new car, or refusing to let her.

If this present fertility rate continues, they will number 18,000 by 1970, at the completion of their first century in America. And by 2054 they will number half a million.

REPORTS that the next Democratic controlled Congress and Defense Secretary C. E. Wilson are planning to increase the U. S. military budget by up to $5 billion next year are getting a cold reception elsewhere in the Eisenhower administration.

The answer is that if next year's budget is increased by anything like this amount, it will mean one of two things: New and higher taxes, or another increase in the national debt limit and a further unbalancing of the budget.

UAW-CIO PRESIDENT Walter Reuther was shown some new automatic machines in a big auto plant recently.

"How are you going to collect dues from these guys?" he was asked by a company official.

"How are you going to get them to buy new cars?" asked Reuther.

House Demos Seek Plan To Curb Rule Committee's Power

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON UP — Evidently concerned by a threat of a coalition roadblock in the Rules Committee, House Democratic leaders are considering a plan to curb that committee's power in the new Congress.

When Democrats organize the House Jan. 5, they may propose restoration of the 21-day rule which was in effect in 1949-50. This rule, in practice, limited to 21 calendar days the time the Rules Committee could hold up bills approved by regular legislative committees.

At the expiration of the 21-day period, the chairman of the committee that originally approved the bill could call it up for a House vote.

The 21-day rule was repealed in 1951. The Rules Committee now can block legislation almost indefinitely — a power it has exercised freely in past years.

In the new Congress, the Rules Committee will be composed of eight Democrats and four Republicans. The Republicans will be Representatives Allen of Illinois, Clarence Brown of Ohio, Ellsworth of Oregon and Latham of New York. Only three of the four Democrats now on the committee will be in the new Congress. They are Representatives Howard Smith of Virginia and Colmer of Mississippi and Rep. Madden of Indiana.

Smith, by virtue of seniority, will be the new chairman. In the past, Smith and Colmer have frequently voted with the Republicans on legislation which they label "New Dealish" or "liberal."

Others to participate are Linda Bodensiek, Jean Tayford, Gerry Kemp, Becky Portado, Annette Baptist, Sharon Fernandes, Julia Allen, Estella Tranbarger, Kenny DeFrates, Tommy Fernandes, Richard Fernandes, Arthur Twynford, Darrell DeFrates and Reynold Cummins.

Rev. Janssen will read the scripture. The public is invited.

Agreeing with the desire of people around the Nation to keep Christ in Christmas, the program has been based on the Biblical record of Christ's birth. The combined Junior and Youth Choirs will conduct the audience through the four divisions of the program: The Night, the Song, the Place and the Saviour. Solo portions of the music will be rendered by Ray Martin, Betty Mosley, Betty Costello and Rev. A. Ends. A special duet will include Delores Mayberry and Sheila Jean Bourn, and Ronald Bourn will play an instrumental number, "Angels Came Down," a beautiful and moving story based on the first Christmas will be told by Ruth Ends.

The public is cordially invited to attend the program. Sunday has been designated as Pastor Appreciation Day, and to show their appreciation of their new pastor, Rev. Ends, the members of the Sunday School have agreed to endeavor to top last Christmas' attendance and bring 102 persons to Sunday School this Sunday.

Nazarene Church To Have Musical Program Sunday

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

There is a growing uneasiness in Western circles over developments in Indonesia.

Five will get you ten among some pretty canny observers of Southeast Asian affairs that there will be a blowup there within the next year with every likelihood that the government will fall into the hands of the Communists.

The present Premier—it is a republican form of government—takes a line very close to that of Premier Nehru of India. He claims an independent foreign policy and a progressive internal program something like the New Deal. But he accepts the political aid of the Communists, and is opposed by the Moslem and Socialist parties.

Overalls And Shirts Believed Stolen Found In Greene

CARROLLTON—Thirteen pairs of overalls and four work shirts, believed to be stolen property, were found under a bridge six miles west of Roodhouse Tuesday. Sheriff Fred Ballard and Deputy Leonard Stone of Carrollton went to the place of the find, and began an investigation.

Ballard said there is probability that the merchandise was taken in a burglary at Shipman, Ill., Saturday night. He expected to check with Macoupin county authorities.

The overalls and shirts were discovered by a resident of the Patterson community, who notified the sheriff's office.

Patrolman Stafford Speaks To Young People's Group

Patrolman Wilbur Stafford spoke to the young people of the First Presbyterian church Westminster Fellowship last Sunday evening. Stafford's appearance was part of an extended study of the problems of juvenile delinquency being undertaken by the Sr. Hi group this year. He talked on "Juvenile Delinquency and What We Can Do About It," having been introduced by Terry Simmons. Other speakers in this series have been Albert Hall, county prosecuting attorney; Severyn Bruyn, of Illinois College; Ralph Heless, of the public school system; and the Rev. Joseph Bais, pastor of the church. Kenneth Dobson is moderator of the Sr. Hi Fellowship and Mr. and Mrs. William Hapke are adult advisors.

The Jr. Hi group has planned a Christmas party for Saturday evening, December 18, in the church's Fellowship hall, with Sally Zachary and Barbara Dollear in charge. David Bone is moderator of the Jr. Hi group.

Both groups will go caroling Sunday evening, Dec. 19, meeting at the church at 7 o'clock, and visiting homes of shut-in members of the church, traveling in trucks furnished by the Carlson-Simmons Home Improvement Service. Members of the Fellowship will be entertained afterward at the home of Carmen Olson.

Jacksonville Life Underwriters Hear H. J. Vasconsells

Harold J. Vasconsells, district director of Social Security from Springfield, was the featured speaker Thursday noon at the December meeting of Jacksonville Life Underwriters. The meeting was held in the County Fair Room of the Dunlap Hotel with twenty-two members and two guests in attendance.

Harold Swisher, president of the association, called on Clarence Kirchofer for a report on the educational committee activities and was informed that plans were underway to contact all high schools in Morgan county and offer the services of speakers from the Underwriters organization as well as text and classroom material for use in the study of life insurance.

William D. Henry, secretary, read the minutes from the last meeting and stated that the association now has the largest membership in its history. Don Olney of Springfield was introduced as a guest at the meeting. Olney was a previous speaker before the local Association of Underwriters.

Recent changes in the Social Security law, such as inclusion of farmers and certain professional men and the increase in benefits, as well as the new "drop out clause" and other technicalities were included in Vasconsells' talk. After the speech Vasconsells threw the meeting open for a question and answer period. The Underwriters were enthusiastic in their response and indicated widespread interest in the subject.

ASHLAND

ASHLAND.—Friends and relatives have received word of the death in November of Charles Harvey Beggs, 83, former Cass county man who moved from north of Ashland to Utah in 1909. He was born in Virginia, Illinois. The deceased was a retired orchardist.

Chest injuries are keeping Ross Anderson from his work at the C.I.P.S. company. He was injured recently in a collision near the Shiloh Presbyterian church.

Ellen Sue Thompson is visiting in Chillicothe at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conkey and family.

The Ashland Home Bureau unit met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Monroe. Mrs. Bertha Varnum, home adviser, presented the major lesson, Selection of Paints for the Walls, Woodwork and Floors. Mrs. Charles Aggert gave the selected subject on How to Present Falls.

Mrs. Frank Long, who has been in the Walker Convalescing Home at Tallula for the past few weeks after being a medical patient at Our Saviour's hospital is reported in serious condition.

Mrs. Maude Atkins, Mrs. Myrtle Work, Mrs. Nora Bailey and Lorena attended the Bath-Lynchburg Home Bureau Christmas party Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Finch in Chandlerville. A gift exchange was enjoyed.

MISSION COMPLETED

VALPARAISO, Ind. (AP) — Mrs. Elizabeth Sherrer drove a mile to buy a loaf of bread and returned home with the bread but with no car.

On the way back, the car stalled on a railroad crossing just as a train roared down the tracks. Mrs. Sherrer jumped to safety but the car was destroyed.

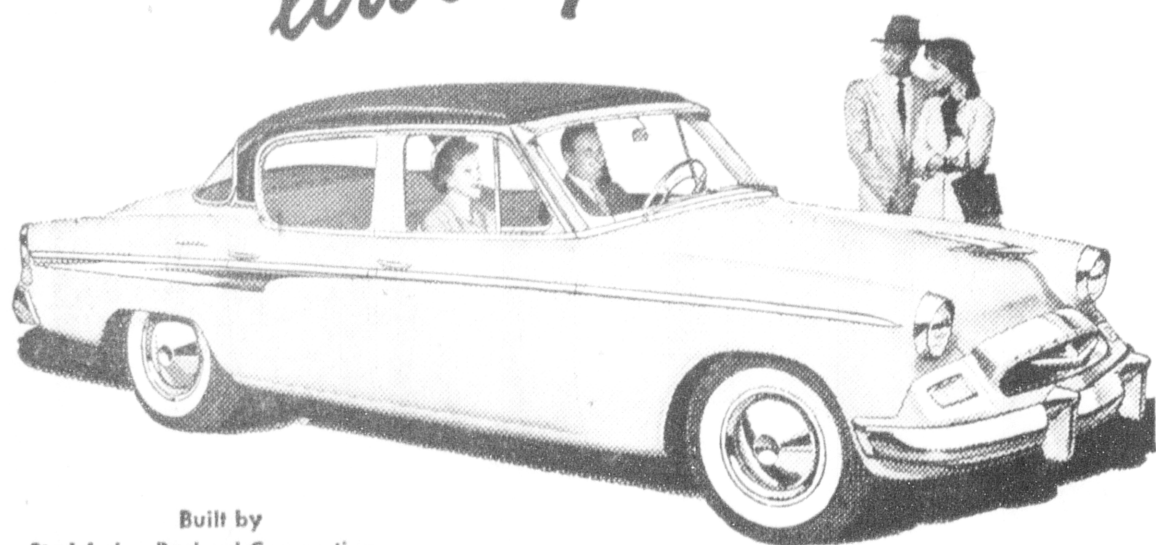

She still had the loaf of bread in her arms.

Mt. Vernon. Centralia Meet In Prep Headliner

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P)—Mount Vernon's defending state champions encounter their sternest test of the budding campaign in a duel with Centralia featuring the downstate Illinois weekend prep basketball card.

Centralia's fancy Orphans have coasted past six opponents to date, piling up margins of 14 to 20 points and will have the home court advantage on Friday.

Mount Vernon, also unstoppped in six outings, survived a close squeak at Marion, who forced the Rams to an overtime for a two-point win. Ram edges over other foes ranged from 6 to 11 points. A second formidable challenge awaits the Rams at Herrin Saturday.

In other standout attractions, West Rockford journeys to Elgin Friday and Canton to Moline Saturday.

The Rockford Warriors have established themselves as the most consistent pointmakers of any major school in tucking off five consecutive victories. Elgin, with four successes in as many tries, has made a better defensive showing, and presents no easy mark.

The Canton-Moline match pairs two of the stronger contenders in the northwestern section, even though both suffered early setbacks — Canton at the hands of Rock Island, and Moline to West Rockford and Thornton. Moline has a Friday date with capable East Moline.

Princeton, Collinsville, Lawrenceville, East St. Louis and Morton of Cicero are among other high flying, unbeaten clubs that draw stiff weekend assignments.

Princeton seeks to make it eight in a row at the expense of Mendota and once-beaten Alton of Rock Island.

Lawrenceville goes after its sixth win of the season Friday against a Salem team that scored 106 points Tuesday against West Fairfield. Morton meets tough Oak Park and New Trier of Winnetka in a brace of weekend engagements. East St. Louis takes on Belleville Friday and Collinsville bumps into Alton Saturday.

Most other prominent outfits face less difficult competition.

Sox Sign Gray

CHICAGO (P)—Lefty Ted Gray, pitcher recently acquired from the Detroit Tigers, Thursday signed a 1955 Chicago White Sox contract and reported his erstwhile sore pitching arm was in good shape.

Gray, bothered by arm trouble until the last month of the 1954 season, had a 3-5 Detroit record. The 30-year-old hurler was the eighth White Sox player to sign for next season.

Recruiting plug for the U. S. Navy: Chick Donaldson, now center for West Virginia's grid team, couldn't play high school football because he weighed only 112 pounds. Now, after a Navy hitch, he weighs 217.

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

How the prep picture looks to us. Some of the questions that have popped up the past few days are: Are the I.S.D. Tigers as good as their record indicates, will the Routt Rockets recuperate from early season losses to cop the conference and just how good is the high school team?

First off, the Tigers with Jack Rampley leading the way have gone through their pre-holiday schedule with little trouble. Coach Spink's quintet possess the top record in town, a 6-0 mark, and have beaten a couple of their toughest opponents in the PMBC conference. The Tigers nipped Routt on the dead floor and defeated Perry at Perry.

The Routt and Perry games should have been two of the roughest for the I.S.D. cagers. Not only have the Tigers defeated teams in their own conference they have journeyed into the Illinois Valley and M.S.M. loops and came out on top in those games. Although it's early in the season, I.S.D. looks like the cream of the crop in the PMBC. To go with Rampley Spink has returning letterman Al Duncanson and Bill Zachariasen. A couple freshmen, Paul McHenry and George Schultz have come along to give a lift to the upper classmen.

Although Routt hasn't enjoyed a good season thus far on paper you can't count the Irish out. Coach Jim Smarjesse has scheduled some of the better teams in this area trying to give the local fans a top card of basketball. At present the Rockets have a 2-4 record for the season. Their losses coming at the hands of Schurz, Elkhart, Chapin and I.S.D.

However, coach Jim seems to have found five boys who click as a unit and the scrappy Rocket five will give all its opponents a run for their money before the season is over. Center Pat Dowling seems to improve with every game. Jim DeVore and Joe Shannon have been playing their usual steady game while George Deo plays in spurts, having his good and bad nights. But who doesn't Jack Baptiste has come along as the 5th starter and was a pleasant surprise to coach Smarjesse.

Coach Chapman's Crimsons have proven to be a pleasant surprise to local fans. Although he didn't say too much about it, coach John gave us the impression he felt this was one of those lean years which come after having two or three good years in a row and before getting started on another string.

But the Crimsons have re-ported by winning four of their first five battles and could have very easily have won the fifth. As long as they have players with the size and ability of Billy Jordan and Howard Johnson they will be tough. The Jaks have come up with a couple more or less surprises of their own. Tom Coats looked good in his last outing and Jim Woodward has been one of the few Crimsons to hit from out court. The other boys breaking into the starting five have been Larry Scott, Jack Fairfield and Max Regene. From this line must come that good ball handler to follow in the footsteps of Wright, Beasley, Bailey, Scott and Barnes.

In the out of town picture, one of the sharpest shooting point producing fives has been Walt Rock's Winchester Wildcats. The Wildcats have rolled over five opponents thus far paced by high scoring Hubble and Redshaw. These two boys have better than 40 points between them per game. Watch Winchester in the Illinois Valley.

The PMBC conference lead is shared by I.S.D. and Chapin. Coach Tom Connelly's Bearcats have three straight wins in the small school loop and a 7-1 mark for the season. Paced by big Nelson Smith the Chapin crew looks like the one stumbling block in I.S.D.'s path to a conference crown.

No matter how you look at it, I.S.D. is a great game and this should be one of those banner years.

Raschi Predicts Sale Of Yankees

DANVILLE, N. Y. (P)—Sale of the New York Yankees was predicted by Vic Raschi, former Yankee pitcher, as he addressed the Danville Rotary Club.

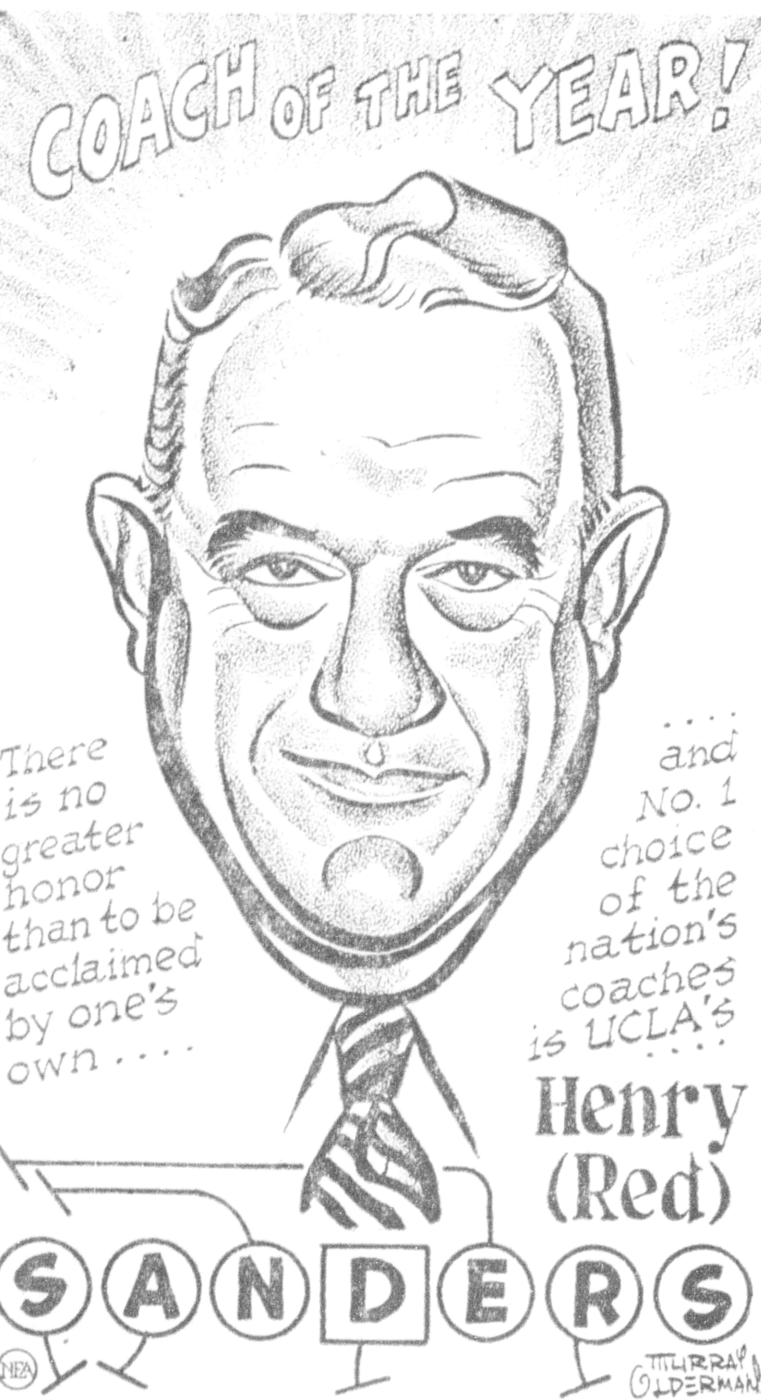

Raschi said "The Yankees are disposing of all their minor league franchises and have already sold Yankee stadium. I look for sale of the club one of these days."

Raschi was sold by the Yankees to the St. Louis Cardinals last spring.

Prince Dare, having failed to stand up under training this season, has been retired to stud. His best season was as a juvenile when he earned 64,375 including first in the $50,696 Maryland Gold Cup.

Minnesota Pins Cage Hopes On Iron Minor With Size 18 D Shoes

By JIM KLOBUCHAR
MINNEAPOLIS (P)—An unexpected that was somewhere between awe and play rolled through Minnesota's huge basketball arena when Bill Simonovich first walked onto the floor.

Simonovich looked frightened and apologetic. At 6-11 and nearly 200 pounds, in a game where size means almost everything, the big fellow was a strange figure of humility.

Yet in 12 months the sprawling youngsters with the muscle, of an iron ore miner—which he was during summer vacations—has become less a curiosity piece and much more a basketball player. He is now a regular around whom much of Minnesota's hopes for the season revolve.

Gradually he is conquering his awkwardness on the floor and his shyness off it. He has an immense following at home games.

Simonovich, a junior, is one of the biggest athletes in the world. Now a full 290 pounds, he wears a size 18D shoe and can conceal a softball in his hand.

His handicaps are such that while he is valuable to Minnesota, he will never become a great player. His reflexes are still slow, he can be outmanned by smaller players and he lacks maneuverability.

However, against DePaul's racehorses last week he stayed in through the thick of it, scored 20 points, grabbed 15 rebounds and earned a compliment from such an astute judge of basketball flesh as Demon Coach Ray Meyer.

"This boy could develop into a strong player," Meyer said. "He'll give lots of people trouble."

Simonovich first enrolled at Hamline in St. Paul. But he wasn't happy there, he says, and after one semester he turned up at Minnesota and told Coach Ozzie Cowles he'd like to play basketball.

Cowles, aware of his limitations, set to work with Simonovich on an arduous scheme of exercises to improve his reactions and timing.

That included barrel work, calisthenics and the rest of the gym routine.

Simonovich is awed by Cowles. He's like a father to me, I didn't realize a coach could have so much patience. When I look back on last year I know what a big favor he was doing just to let me play. I wasn't good enough and I hurt the team sometimes when I was in there."

Simonovich says this with unimpeachable earnestness. He has a mild manner and sincerity, impressing all who have watched his deliberate efforts to improve himself.

And whenever he can spare the time, he likes to do some dancing.

"It's kind of tough for a big fellow like me," he smiles, "but it's fun."

Alexandria paced the scoring for the losers with 12 points.

Arenzville won the preliminary 42-39.

TRANSIENT MANAGERS
BUFFALO, N. Y. (P)—Managing the Buffalo Bisons in the International League is a transient job. Dan Carnevale is the seventh pilot in the past six years. Previous managers in this period have been Frank Skaff, Ray Schalk, Specs Torporcer, Coaker Triplett, Jack Tighe, Billy Hitchcock and Paul Richards.

There were reports, however, that other players would disapprove such a procedure, figuring a dangerous precedent would be set.

In Pittsburgh, Kiner said "I still see nothing wrong with the contract I signed. Why should anyone object if I want to take a cut?"

He said that if Frick wants him to sign a new contract, he would do so, of course. A new contract presumably would be for about $49,000, a 25 per cent cut from his reported $65,000 with the Cubs in 1954.

Will Hartridge, American League president, approved the original Kiner-Indian contract as mutually agreeable to both parties, but has declined to comment on Frick's action.

Basilio TKO's Harper In 3rd

AKRON, Ohio (P)—Carmen Basilio of Syracuse, N.Y., won a technical knockout over Ronnie Harper of Detroit Thursday night as his scheduled 10-round welterweight bout in the armory was stopped at the end of three.

Basilio, weighing in two pounds lighter than his opponent's 152 pounds, chopped Harper's face into a bloody mess in the short fight. Seconds before the third round ended, a hard right sent Harper to the canvas for a count of four.

When the round ended with Harper reeling on his feet, referee Ed Atlas stepped to the center of the ring and raised Basilio's hand.

3 Local Teams Play Saturday; Crimsons, Blueboys Play Here

The Illinois College Blueboys entertain William Penn of Oskaloosa, Iowa at the IC gym tonight in the only case activity on the local program. The only other local team in action this evening is the Routt Rockets who journey to Springfield for two games with the Feitshans Flyers.

Tomorrow evening all three teams will be in action. The Jacksonville Crimsons play host to Macomb at the local bowl, William Jewell of Liberty, Mo. visits IC and Routt hits the road for the second night in a row when they travel to Franklin.

At the Milltop gym tonight the Blueboys will be going after victory number four against the Iowa five. The Blueboys have suffered two defeats. Coach Al Miller will probably pick his starting lineup from his starting "six" of Ed Harrell, Bob Stansfield, Dick Beasley, Dick Barnes, Bill Merris and Roger Curfman. After being in somewhat of a slump, the boys should get rolling tonight after finishing their final exams. There will be no "B" game tonight. The one and only contest will get under way at 8:00.

Routt at Feitshans
Coach Jim Smarjesse's Routt Rockets will be seeking victory number three tonight when they invade the capital city.

The host Flyer team was defeated early in the season by the Jacksonville Crimsons but have since come back strong. The Flyers are sparked by 6-5 center Homer.

Coach Smarjesse will probably go with his same starting five. Pat Dowling at center, George Dee and Jim DeVore at forwards and Joe Shannon and Jack Baptiste at guards.

Crimsons Play Saturday
The Crimsons return to action tomorrow evening when they play host to Macomb in the local bowl. The Jaks have been idle since Tuesday's 86-60 victory over Mason City. The junior varsity game tomorrow evening will get under way at the usual time, 6:45.

Also on tap tomorrow night will be a college game at the IC gym. The Blueboys play host to William Jewell in an 8:00 contest. The visiting William Jewell five possesses one of the taller small college teams in this part of the country. They have a center who measures 6-11 and a forward reaching 6-6. They can, if it becomes necessary, put a team on the floor averaging 6-5.

Routt is also in action tomorrow night. The Rockets travel to Franklin for an engagement with Bill Farley's Flashes.

Trabert, Seixas Crush Swedes In Davis Cup

By WILL GRIMSLEY
BRISBANE, Australia (P)—Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas answered their critics Thursday with crushing tennis which sent the United States off to a 2-0 lead over Sweden in the Davis Cup interzone finals at Milton Court here.

Trabert, called the work-holy in Uncle Sam's cup word, tore the fighting heart out of towering Sven Davidson in the opening match by a decisive 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

Then Seixas, who they said had opening day Davis Cup jitters because of his spotty record during the last three years, staged a series of plucky comebacks to wear down plucky Bengt Bergelin in a brilliant 2½ hour struggle 6-7, 6-2, 6-4, 5-7, 6-2.

Afterward, the non-playing U. S. captain, was smiling broadly. "Certainly I am well pleased," he said, "We need some tightening up but we got over two big hurdles today."

Trabert and Seixas play Bergelin and Davidson in the doubles Friday. The final singles will be played Saturday with Trabert meeting Bergelin and Seixas playing Davidson.

GRAINS CLOSE HIGHER ON SLOW MARKET

By WILLIAM FERRIS
CHICAGO (U)—Most grain contracts ended higher on the Board of Trade Thursday although there were some exceptions to the trend. Best prices were made in the last half hour of relatively slow dealing.

December wheat and December soybeans showed the sharpest upturn, greatly helped by short covering. Trading in December contracts ended Dec. 22.

Wheat closed 1/4 lower to 2 1/4 higher, corn 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, oats 1/4 lower to 1 cent higher, rye 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, soybeans 1 1/4 lower to 1 1/4 higher and lard unchanged to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Strength in wheat was centered in those months representing the 1954 crop. It was not imparted to 1955 crop months. The buying in the old crop months reflected the belief of many traders that wheat in the free market will become quite scarce before the 1955 crop is harvested.

As has been the case most of this week, trading in soybeans was featured by the firm tone of the January contract. Cash soybean oil held unchanged but bean meal advanced to $70.00 to $70.50 a ton, up 50 cents to $1.00.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (U)—The stock market surged ahead to new peaks Thursday with leaders displaying exceedingly sharp gains.

The market's action marked a resumption of the bull market boom which was interrupted for about a week with a hesitant retreat.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up $1.80 at $151.20, highest since Sept. 19, 1929, when the average stood at $152.50, a short distance away from the all-time high of $167.70 Sept. 3 of that year.

Brokers said the market exhibited strength by the manner in which it easily absorbed selling over the last week. They also were impressed by the way trading expanded quickly when prices turned higher.

That favorable technical performance by the market was additionally highlighted by new optimistic reports on the good state of general business throughout the country.

Steels, rails, oils, and aircrafts were stars of the advance and they were joined by motors, rubbers, distillers, airlines, chemicals, coppers and utilities as well as a long list of stocks individually strong.

All of the components of the AP average advanced—industrials up $2.30, railroads up $2.40 at a new high of $119.00, and utilities up 20 cents.

Volume expanded to 3,390,000 shares as compared with 2,740,000 shares traded in Wednesday's moderately advancing market.

The American Stock Exchange was higher all around with trading at 1,130,000 shares as compared with 970,000 shares traded Wednesday.

Nonvirulent Form Of Polio May Exist In Nature, Sabin

WASHINGTON (U)—Dr. Albert B. Sabin, one of the nation's leading virus investigators, said Thursday night there now is evidence suggesting that a nonvirulent form of polio virus may exist in nature.

And, he said, this may be an important factor in explaining the fact that the vast majority of human beings develop immunity to polio without suffering paralysis. Dr. Sabin, a University of Cincinnati scientist, discussed his findings in a paper prepared for a lecture at the National Institute of Health.

In the past, a major concept has been that differences in people themselves, rather than differences in polio-virus, could help account for the fact that most people develop a natural immunity without getting a paralytic infection.

Dr. Sabin told about laboratory development of strains of nonvirulent, or "tamed" polio virus, from virus that was originally highly paralytic to test animals. These "tamed" strains, he added, have been found capable of producing signs of polio immunity in chimpanzees and a few human volunteers.

The evidence that a nonvirulent form of polio virus may also exist in nature, he said, is as follows:

During the summer of 1953, material was obtained from the intestinal tract of approximately 1,500 healthy Cincinnati children who had no known contact with any case of polio. When this material was placed in a culturing medium, Sabin and his associates recovered five strains of polio virus. Later, when the virus was injected into the spinal cords of monkeys, it was shown that the strains he had similarly to the nonvirulent strains previously segregated in the laboratory.

He said that eventually it may be possible to develop an antipolio vaccine employing the laboratory developed nonvirulent virus.

Some scientists believe that a vaccine made of living, but modified-for-safety virus, could produce more potent immunity than a vaccine made of chemically killed virus.

The vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk of the University of Pittsburgh, and now undergoing nationwide appraisal, is of the latter type.

But Dr. Salk declared only last week that he couldn't agree with the idea that a vaccine containing living, but modified, virus would be more potent. Salk also reported new blood-study evidence suggesting that his own vaccine can create powerful, long lasting protection against polio.

U. S. SHRUGS OFF SOVIET DEMAND

WASHINGTON (U)—State Department officials Thursday shrugged off Russia's demand, backing Red China, that the United States get out of Formosa.

The Department had no formal comment but informants said privately the Russian position appeared to be about the only one an ally of Red China could take.

Willner was arrested Wednesday by members of the sheriff's force, who said he and a 16 year old boy admitted stealing gasoline Tuesday night at the home of Harry Weiries, four miles west of Chapin.

The case of the 16 year old boy was referred to the court as a dependent child.

IMMIGRANTS TO CANADA
OTTAWA (U)—More than a million immigrants have come to Canada since World War II, swelling the population past the 16 million mark.

Figures available Thursday indicate a 1954 influx of 155,000, down slightly from last year. Most of the new Canadians came from Britain, Holland, Germany and Italy.

Threatens To Cancel Pact With France

Under such circumstances, the Soviet government considers it its duty to state that the act of ratification of the Paris agreement will annul the Soviet-French treaty. The entire responsibility for this will rest upon the French government.

The Soviet Union has previously threatened to abrogate the treaty. For the French, abrogation of the 1944 treaty would mean Moscow no longer was committed on paper to go to the aid of France in the event a remilitarized Germany should attack the French. Many French still fear the prospect of a rearmaged Germany, after two invasions in as many generations.

The Molotov statement to Japan called attention to an announcement of the new Japanese government of Premier Ichiro Hatoyama that it was prepared to resume normal relations with the Soviet Union on mutually acceptable conditions. Molotov said the Soviet government took a "positive attitude" toward the Japanese statement.

Cypriots, Angry At U.S. Vote In U.N., Smash Up Building

SALONIKA, Greece (U)—Shouting and students protesting the United States' failure to support Greek demands for Cyprus smashed up the U. S. Information Agency offices here Thursday.

Police and firemen halted the demonstration, in which 40 persons were reported injured—none of them Americans.

U. S. Consul General Murtat Williams said the USA offices were "very badly damaged in spite of the efforts of the police." The students destroyed all the plate glass windows, overturned some bookshelves, and damaged some film equipment. They tried to reach the main consulate offices, were held off by strong police reinforcements, but broke two windows in the consulate's visa office in another building.

Eyewitnesses and several truckloads of armed soldiers arrived on the scene but were not used in quelling the disorders. British Consul General Robert Dundas said the demonstrators tried to reach his building but were able only to break one window with a few stones and damage a consulate automobile.

It was the second outbreak of anti-American violence in Greece within three days. It followed a vote by the U. N. General Assembly's Political Committee in New York Wednesday shelving Greek demands that Britain, which holds Cyprus as a crown colony, permit the Cypriots "self-determination" of their political future.

LOS ANGELES (U)—Mal Whitfield and Miss Birgit Johansson are in agreement today they are not engaged to be married.

"There must have been a misunderstanding," she says. The report that they were engaged appeared in a Stockholm newspaper last Sunday. Whitfield, 29, the Negro two-time Olympic Games 800-meter champion, was not then available, being in Pakistan on a good will world tour.

But Miss Johansson, 26, a Swedish girl who came here last year and works in a Los Angeles bank, told reporters here she said: "I intended to keep it a secret until he returned."

Whitfield was reached Wednesday in Lahore, Pakistan, and he asserted: "I have no commitments to marry Birgit Johansson or anyone else. If that has been reported, you can say it is a false report."

Whereupon Miss Johansson, quipped again by reporters, said: "I am not engaged to Mal. I have nothing more to say. There must have been a misunderstanding."

She also indicated that previously she was under the impression that Whitfield has been quoted directly in the original report. The Stockholm story was without attribution.

Flash Fire Kills Sons Of Medicine Millionaire

NORTHPORT, Maine (U)—A flash fire roared through a fashionable home in this Penobscot Bay community Wednesday, killing three young sons of medicine millionaire Edwin Grove III and a middle-aged couple caring for them.

The fire generated such intense heat that it was seven hours before firemen could enter and recover the bodies of Jeffrey, 4, David, 6, and Christopher, 8, all of Harvey S. Bean, 58, and his wife Madeline, 57, of Vienna, Maine.

The boys' parents were in Boston, where Mrs. Grove is expecting the birth of a fourth child soon. Grove, who formerly lived in Aspen, Colo., is a director of the Grove (pharmaceutical) Laboratories in St. Louis.

Firemen were unable to determine the cause of the blaze, which destroyed the two-story house.

To See Color At Christmas First Time In 7 Years

BALTIMORE (U)—Ten-year-old Jane Irving of Winter Park, Fla., will be able to see the color and lights of Christmas for the first time in seven years.

She began losing her eyesight seven years ago as a result of a serious infection in infancy. She was almost totally blind, just could about tell night from day, her mother, Mrs. Muriel Irving said, when the Lions Club of Winter Park financed her trip to Johns Hopkins hospital here.

Doctors in Hopkins' Wilmer Clinic performed corneal transplants two months ago and Jane is seeing better than she has since she was 3.

She can distinguish the colors of passing automobiles, tell the color of her dresses and even make out the reindeer, sled and Santa Claus on her Christmas cards.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (U)—Railroads and industrials led the corporate bond market higher Thursday. But U.S. government issues eased.

"Big Board" volume declined to $5,560,000 par value from $6,290,000 Wednesday as the corporate list improved. Convertible obligations were especially strong, but investment grade issues also found support.

Railroads and industrials made the best gains, some extending beyond 32. Utilities tended to lose ground, but declines were mostly fractions.

Treasury securities retraced some of Wednesday's gains in over the counter trading that featured switching from one issue into another to establish tax losses or gains.

The Illinois Toll Road Commission is expected to market 390 million dollars of revenue bonds about Jan. 10 through underwriters. Proceeds will build three turnpikes—a belt line around Chicago linking Indiana and Wisconsin, a road from Chicago to Rockford, Ill. and one from Chicago to suburban Aurora.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

CHICAGO (U)—Hogs tumbled 25 to 50 cents to new lows for the past two years in slow dealings Thursday. Receipts of 17,000 head was partly responsible for the decline.

Top was $18.50, paid for a few choice offerings. This was the lowest top figure since Dec. 22, 1953, when nothing sold above $18.25.

Most choice 190 to 220-pound butchers sold at $17.00 to $18.25 with 230 to 250-pounders at $16.25 to $17.25 and 260 to 300-pounders at $15.50 to $16.25. Sows were taken in a $13.25 to $15.75 range.

Only a few steers and heifers averaging choice and better showed up in the cattle section where receipts totaled 2,600. They were quoted steady.

Buyers paid $19.25 to $24.50 for good to low choice steers and yearlings and $14.00 to $21.50 for commercial and good heifers. Utility and commercial cows were weak to 25 cents lower at $8.50 to $11.50. Vealers were steady at $19.00 to $22.00 for good and choice.

Sizable sheep receipts totaled 1,500. Lambs sold steady to 50 cents higher at $17.50 to $19.75 for good to prime woolled types.

S-D Day Record Here Shows 'It Can Be Done'

Morgan County Welfare Group Visits Office

The Morgan County Welfare Service committee held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Dunlap hotel with 12 of the 15 members present.

President Dr. J. B. Griebler of Meredosia conducted a brief business session, at which it was decided to hold the four 1955 meetings on the fourth Tuesday in March, May, September and November.

After the business session, the group adjourned to the Illinois Welfare Services office in the American Bankers building where Supt. Edwin Audekamp and his staff explained their duties and the procedures used in old age assistance and aid to dependent children.

Frank Caldwell, district representative of the Welfare Service, attended the meeting.

First Baptist Church To Have Special Music

Music by choir and congregation will be the principal expression of adoration to God for His gift to the world at the Sunday morning worship service, 10:45 o'clock, at the First Baptist church.

Besides the singing of a number of carols, the choir of 25 voices will present two anthems, "Sing Gloria" by Davis and "Come to the Manger" by Kountz. The choir is under the direction of James Welch, with Mahala McGehee at the organ. The minister, Rev. Clair E. Malcomson, will give the Christmas meditation, "The Greatest Story."

The sanctuary has been beautifully decorated, emphasizing by means of colored pictures the babe in the manger, the visit of the shepherds, and the wise men. Additional poinsettia plants may be sent to the church on Saturday, Dec. 18.

All who are not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to share in this significant service of adoration and praise.

Boat Club Holds Turkey Dinner

Sunday was a full day at the Jacksonville Boat Club. A trap shoot started at 10 a. m. and continued until dark. During the afternoon Mrs. Albert Biggs cooked two large turkeys with dressing furnished by the club. Each member brought a covered dish. The dinner was served cafeteria style and sixty-five members were present.

Following the dinner entertainment and games were enjoyed until a late hour. The day was so well enjoyed that it will likely be made an annual activity at the club.

"All officers of our department tell me that they saw more courteous driving on the streets of Jacksonville Wednesday than on any other day they remember," Chief Ike Flynn said Thursday in summing up the results of S-D (Safe Driving Day) which was observed throughout the nation.

Jacksonville experienced an accident-free 24 hours. There may have been a few dented fenders, but these remained in the minor class as unreportable.

The stand-out fact of the day was that the city had no injuries or deaths due to traffic. Neither did the immediate area surrounding the city.

"This is proof that caution on a mass basis pays off in saving lives and preventing misery," Patrolman Wilbur Stafford said in reviewing S-D Day activities. Stafford was appointed by Mayor Hoagland several weeks ago to direct the city's observance of S-D Day.

All members of the police department were of the opinion that what can be done one day can be done every day, if drivers retain the safety conscious attitude they showed Wednesday. The knowledge that it was S-D Day was with thousands of drivers as they drove in the business and residential districts, observed stop signs, and held speed to the legal maximum.

Effects of S-D Day were especially noticeable in the business district. Scores of pedestrians were surprised but pleased when drivers halted and waved them across the white-painted lanes.

"It sure makes a difference," many of these pedestrians thought, as they sauntered safely across streets in front of slow-moving or motionless traffic.

The "difference" was recorded on the big thermometer erected at the west entrance of Central park. The hour marks were all green—which meant that no accidents occurred during the 24 hour span.

Church Plans Dramatic Xmas Presentation

In the sanctuary of the First Baptist church a dramatic presentation will be given on Sunday evening, Dec. 19, entitled "The Greatest Gift" by Harold C. Bonnell. It is under the direction of Mrs. A. T. Brownell.

The service will start promptly at 7 o'clock, with an organ prelude by Mahala McGehee. The congregation will unite in singing "Joy to the World" after which the invocation will be given by the pastor. The Christmas Story from Luke 2 will then be read. A large number of children will share in the singing of carols, and they will be presented by Dr. Perry A. Roberts.

At this time white gifts will be presented by members of the audience, which may consist of canned foodstuffs or moneys for the children at the orphanage in Centralia. This will be climaxed by the singing of the Doxology.

The dramatic presentation which follows will be played by the following: Lemuel, Bob Kelsey; Hoshia, Herbert Lindsay; Joel, William Tinsley, who represents the shepherds. The women at the well are Esther, represented by Mrs. F. S. Patterson; Ramah, Mrs. Forrest Crouse; and Myra, Marjorie Dobson. The public is cordially invited.

Start Pumping From Wells To Supply Virginia

VIRGINIA, Ill.—The new pumps recently installed to pump water from the wells purchased from Charles T. Hoppin, whose farm is near the City Waterworks, were started Tuesday afternoon. Mayor W. R. Herman and members of the city council were present to witness the pumping of the first water.

The city employees and others have been working for several months making preparations necessary to bring the water from the wells to the pump house at the waterworks, north of the city. Engineers who drilled the wells felt that an ample water supply is assured.

At present the supply in the waterworks lake is at the lowest stage since February, 1953.

Frank C. Fox attended a dinner at the Dunlap Hotel, in Jacksonville, Monday evening, at which the Passavant hospital doctors, trustees, and members of the various hospital boards were guests. Mr. Fox is a member of the board of trustees.

A Bulletin reporter who had been given a description of the boy by an uncle recognized little Marty Downes from the picture and the accompanying story and notified the parents.

Marty, who had refused to talk during his stay at the center, was found wandering in a subway station early on the morning of Nov. 26.

DISMISS INDICTMENTS AGAINST JOSEPH HODGES

PEORIA, Ill.—The last three of seven grand jury indictments returned against Joseph Hodges were dismissed Thursday by Judge John Culbertson Jr. in Peoria County Circuit Court.

Waverly Doctor Races State Cor. Fined $100

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—A physician charged with racing a state policeman around winding country roads on Safe Driving Day was fined the maximum of $100 and costs Thursday.

State Policeman William T. Hall testified in justice of the peace court in Springfield that he spotted Dr. Charles W. Johnston of nearby Waverly driving 60 m.p.h. in a 20 m.p.h. zone in Waverly Wednesday.

The officer related that he began chasing the doctor, who took to country roads, and that they clipped along at speeds up to 90 m.p.h. with the police car's siren screaming and its red lights flashing. Hall said he stopped Johnston after they had raced about three miles.

Johnston pleaded guilty but said he did not realize that he was being chased.

Boy, 8, Missing Since Thanksgiving Back With Parents

PHILADELPHIA (P)—An 8-year-old boy who disappeared from his home on Thanksgiving night was reunited with his parents Thursday at a city welfare center. He had been there for three weeks.

The parents, who had notified police within hours of the boy's absence, said they had not been told that he was at the center. Even members of the Juvenile Aid Bureau had investigated without learning that the red-haired child was being cared for by another city agency.

A photograph of the forlorn, frightened youngster in Thursday's Philadelphia Bulletin led to the joyous reunion.

A Bulletin reporter who had been given a description of the boy by an uncle recognized little Marty Downes from the picture and the accompanying story and notified the parents.

Marty, who had refused to talk during his stay at the center, was found wandering in a subway station early on the morning of Nov. 26.

Marian Civics Club Receives Official Charter

The Marian Civics Club of Our Saviour's school this week received its official charter from the Commission on American Citizenship in Washington, D. C.

The charter formally recognizes the local unit of the Civics Club which was recently organized. Pupils of grade 7 comprise its membership.

The officers of the newly organized Club are: Paula Schultz, president; Dennis Lewis, vice-president; Ellen Kennedy, recording secretary; Michael Hartong, corresponding secretary; and Thomas Shanley, sergeant at arms.

Through monthly projects, featured in the national Catholic weekly for students of the upper elementary grades "The Young Catholic Messenger," these young citizens learn in a concrete way the meaning of Christian social living based on principles of justice and charity.

This year the Commission on American Citizenship has set up the Clubs a program of study and action under the general theme, "We Need One Another." The program will stress the interdependence of urban and rural people.

SILENCE IN COURT:
PITTSBURGH (AP)— Until sometime in 1955 deaf mutes might do well to arrange to have their criminal court case heard by Judge Samuel A. Weiss. Weiss has a growth on his vocal chords. His doctor prescribed 6 months of silence.

Weiss said he would write his opinions, let someone else read them and that he would communicate with attorneys via the sign language.

Christian Church Presents "Xmas In Many Lands"

The Central Christian church Sunday school department will present their annual Christmas program Sunday night, December 19 at the church. The program this year will take the form of departmental presentations, and the theme "Christmas in Many Lands" has been chosen. The program has been planned so that each department has a specified time for its part in the presentation, enabling parents and friends to visit each department at the time of the performance.

The program will begin at 6:30 p. m. in the beginners department, where the pre-school children, under the direction of Mrs. Lowell Dodson, superintendent, will show how American children observe Christmas. The Nativity Scene will be enacted by the children, and the entire group will sing "Jingle Bells" and "Up on the Housetop."

At 7:00 p. m., the primary department will depict "Christmas in Korea—1964." Special emphasis in this part of the program is being put on the necessity of Christian sharing with less fortunate peoples. Songs and recitations by the children of the department will also be given, and the entire group will sing "Oh, Come to the Manger" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas." Mrs. Leslie Heuston is superintendent of the primary children.

At 7:30 p. m., the junior department will dramatize a Mexican "Posadas," or the re-enactment of the journey of Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem, and the trials they encountered along the way. Authentic Mexican folk music, centuries old, will be used in this musical dramatization. The children will sing in English and in Spanish in the three scenes used to portray the Mexican Christmas celebration. Mrs. Edward Hopper has arranged and directed this program. Mrs. Ray Sorrells is superintendent of the junior department.

At 8:00 p. m., the entire assembly will gather in the large downstairs rooms of the church for the visit of Santa.

Parents and friends are urged to note the time schedule arranged for each department.

The committee in charge of arrangements is Mrs. Ray Sorrells, chairman, Mrs. Lowell Dodson, Mrs. Frances Sparger, Mrs. Leslie Heuston, and Mrs. William O'Brien. Howard Reynolds is superintendent of the Sunday school department of the church.

PATTERSON
Mrs. Nona Owdom spent from Thursday until Saturday in Jacksonville with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Owdom.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Arnold and son of Jacksonville spent Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Dawdy.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkinson, were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dawdy and family of White Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McEvers and son Stanley.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the most difficult jobs of housekeeping is to keep linoleum and asphalt tile floors waxed and gleaming. Now thanks to Glaxo, it is no longer necessary to wax and scrub. All you do is apply Glaxo with a brush about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work plus truly a beautiful floor. Glaxo is available at Romb's Hardware Co.

Christmas Special — Homemade Cookies: Cookies for Christmas are as traditional as mistletoe and holly, and no one seems to remember just how or when the tradition started. But whether the cookies are for giving or for keeping, those from home kitchens are always counted "special."

If you want cookie baking to be fun, make it a family activity. Even quite young children can help if they are given jobs they can do, and they'll profit by sharing in the fun and the giving.

Unless you want many different kinds of cookies, your favorite recipe for old-fashioned sugar cookies is a good starting point. Make the recipe in quantity, and then vary the shapes and the decorations. Stars, trees, candles, bells, wreaths and Santas are probably the most popular designs for Christmas. Gingerbread men are a "must" for young children and can be made of the sugar cookie dough.

Colored sugars—red, green, yellow—are easy to use and add sparkle aplenty. Christmas wreaths decorated with tiny red candles and bits of green cherry to resemble holly add a festive note to a cookie collection. Finely chopped nuts and whole nutmeats may be used to add texture and variety. Brush the cookies lightly with egg white before you add the decoration.

If you prefer, bake the cookies first and then decorate them. Be sure they are thoroughly cooled before adding any decoration. Icing made from confectioner's sugar, a portion of butter and just enough milk or fruit juice to moisten, is quick to make and easy to handle. Divide the recipe and add a drop or two of vegetable coloring to each portion. Red for Santa, green for trees and yellow for stars gives good variety. Use a chocolate icing for the gingerbread men, or spread with the white icing for the gingerbread men, or spread with the white icing and then decorate with melted chocolate.

Just before the icing is set, with a toothpick trace borders, make buttons or faces or finish the design, as desired. This gives children a wonderful opportunity to use their imagination in working out original designs.

Washable Fabrics Most Popular For Children: If there's a child on your Christmas list and you want to buy clothing, remember that most mothers prefer washable garments. Fabrics that are 100 percent synthetic or that are blends and mixtures of synthetics with wools or cottons adapt themselves well to easy upkeep via the modern washing machine.

Tweeds and ginghams in 100 percent nylon are now competing with the classic wool tweeds and cotton ginghams. Printed nylon fabrics are also taking the place of cotton prints for dainty, sheer blouses.

Acrylics, Dacron and nylon are some of the synthetics commonly used in making blends with wool, worsteds and cotton that can be washed. Silk and cotton mixtures are also proving to be easy-to-care-for fabrics.

When you're selecting a child's garment that you expect to be washable, read the label to make sure it will wash. And, if the garment is to be a gift, be sure to leave the label on it so that the receiver will be able to follow the washing instructions.

Sewing Velveteen and Corduroy: Velveteen and corduroy are both popular this year for holiday fashions. However, they both present problems in cutting and sewing because they are napped.

Your garment will have a richer tone if you cut all the pieces with the "up" of the nap running toward the top of the garment. To find the "up" and "down" of velveteen or corduroy, run your hand down the length of the fabric. If the nap lies smooth and flat, it is the "down" of the nap. If it feels slightly rough and appears darker, it is the "up" of the nap.

Avoid top stitching on velveteen and corduroy because the pressure foot will mat the surface. To help prevent matting, place tissue paper between the right sides of the material. For a smooth finish, pink and stitch or bind seam edges.

A velvet board is best for pressing velveteen and corduroy. Place the napped side down and press with a steam iron. If you use a dry iron, use a slightly damp cloth on the wrong side. You can use a folded Turkish towel in place of the velvet board. Or stand your iron on end, hold a damp cloth on the wrong side of the fabric and run it over the iron, pulling it gently. Make sure the napped side is away from the iron.

Is Your Storage Space Adequate? You'll be spending a great deal of time in your kitchen during the next few weeks, so take a look at the storage space there. Is it adequate for your family's needs? Are the items stored where they are first used, and are they easy to see, easy to reach and easy to grasp? The requirements for good storage are adequacy, accessibility and, above all, location at the point where the contents will be used.

Take a good look at your mixing center. Are all the things you need for mixing stored there? Are your measuring cups and spoons easy to see, reach and grasp? Maybe you'll want to hang them on small nails or hooks. Are your mixing bowls within easy reach, or do you have them stacked on a high shelf? If you have room, don't put your bowls in one another. You'll save time and energy if you place them separately on a shelf just above the mixing height.

Do you have enough cupboard space for your spices, flours, flavorings, seasonings and the like?

You may want to save space by having special little shelves or racks on the cupboard doors to hold all your spices.

Check every bit of storage space in your house. If it doesn't meet the standards set up for food storage, see what you can do to improve it. Make sure the storage space in your house rates an "A" for adequacy and accessibility.

Take Pre-Sale Inventory at Home: Before you take advantage of the houseware sales now beginning in various communities, take an inventory of your own cupboards and drawers.

Get rid of equipment you don't use and put the things you use often in places you can easily reach.

What you buy will depend not only on your needs, but on your amount of storage space, your pocketbook and your methods of food preparation.

But don't buy equipment just for the sake of having it. Buy only the items that you really need and that will make your work easier.

U.N. CALLS S. AFRICA'S RACIAL POLICY 'GRAVE THREAT'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly termed South Africa's race segregation policy Tuesday "a grave threat to the peaceful relations between ethnic groups in the world."

The Assembly approved a U.N. special commission's report using those terms, asked the three-member commission to keep the question under review and called upon South Africa for its cooperation—so far refused.

Fight The Wild River
by EDMUNDS CLAUSSEN

THE STORY: Radein Burke has already made an unsuccessful attempt to capture a shipment of rifles from Captain Croch's riverboat. The rifles are to be delivered up the Colorado to La Paz. They are for the Union Army to protect settlers from Apaches and also to keep Arizona from being captured by the Confederacy.

LESS than two months had passed since Pauline Weaver had found the first gold in the river gravel, and from this desolate camp of one tent La Paz had boomeranged into a healthy settlement of 1000 men. At dusk the General Heath bore in on the shore. Amador had already tied fast to a tree above them.

The largest building yet attempted was under construction, a saloon whose front section was already doing a land-office business while Mexican laborers still fitted vigas to the rear which would support its roof. A brush ramada cast shade against its front door and the walk. Attached to one of the posts was a freshly painted sign:

DURBIN
DURBIN — A Christmas program will be held Friday Dec. 24 at 7 p.m. at the Durbin church. The program committee will be Mrs. Byron Smith, Mrs. John Rawlings and Mrs. Harold McDevitt.

and all of them, at one time or another, have been helped by the snake. Belaire was ready to turn them loose on Gila City.
"Gila City was too near Yuma in case the fight dragged out, and I've got something new to explain. Sherod Hunter's marching back with Texas volunteers! Once we have La Paz under control we can train our men thoroughly with the new Springfield, then be ready to march in support of Hunter's campaign." Burke let his black eyes drift feebly over his men, read out the harsh lines of their faces. "This time, friends, it will be against Major Murphy!"

LIUTENANT LANE was a medium built, thin man with most of his body liquid cooked dry by the desert sun. He had sharp dark features, a pointed nose and a pronounced Adam's apple. This was the officer to whom Murphy had consigned the Springfield. The redmen, in various sectors of the frontier, had driven into him a temper that only fine steel, or the old Army of the West, could lay claim to. Murphy could pick men well.

"Lieutenant," Croch said smiling, "I hope you have a rugged place to store your shipment." Lane frowned slightly. "I have an adobe hut as my arsenal. But you have brought the guns through safely—that's the main thing!"
"And you'll have trouble," Croch said.
Lane nodded. "I expect trouble as soon as my men cross your gangland. I should tell you I have nearly 100 Union sympathizers concealed about camp. They're willing to fight. I've been working in La Paz nearly two weeks, Captain."

They were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevenson in Jacksonville.
Mr. and Mrs. James Rawling and family visited their aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Reynolds, in Jacksonville Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Simke and Mr. and Mrs. John Becker of Jacksonville visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. John Oxley.
